CONGRATULATIONS JESUS!

Jesus was recently recognized with the Paul O'Hayre Safety Award. Paul was instrumental in shaping the safety culture at Irex/Musser Park and helping all of the companies achieve world-class safety and health performance. After his unfortunate passing, this award was named in his honor and it is awarded to individuals who, like Paul, have had a substantial impact on the company's safety culture. It is obvious to all of us at SSC that Jesus definitely meets that criteria. This award is not handed out lightly. In fact, Jesus is only the second recipient of the award in its nearly ten-year history.

Jesus's consistent hard work, dedication and compassion for our workforce perfectly embodies the spirit of the award. He has been a tremendous asset to our team and his hard work, dedication and commitment has led to some truly remarkable results. I am sure it goes without saying, we all know that this award is well-deserved.

Please join me in extending our sincerest congratulations to Jesus for being recognized with the Paul O'Hayre Safety Award! - Bob Yelinski

As we all know COVID presented this year with many different challenges from jobsite, to company to personal. There have been many things outside all of control.

As a company it was important, we focused on similar traditions as in years past. Unfortunately, we were not able to all be together, but we were able to celebrate in other ways.

Providing non-perishable food to local charities is something we do not take lightly each year. This year was especially important with all the hardships our communities have faced. Thank you all for donating to the cause. We donated 1,539 pounds of nonperishable food to Care & Share.

Every year we receive donations from many vendors and this year was no different. Our vendors play a massive roll in our success of meeting deadlines to provide supplies we need. This year they once again humbly donated to all of you. Thank you so much for your generosity Jones Hartz Building Supply, Ahern Rentals, Pioneer Materials, Cemco, and American Gypsum.

As donations were received they were organized, folded, counted, and broken into different piles. Every team member received a tool, their vendor swag bag, and their Spacecon swag bag. All items were broken down by jobsite and placed with labels ready for the elves to deliver.

Onsite Kevin, Craig, Joe, Diego, Ron, Jesus, assisted in various deliveries while adhering to all COVID safety protocols, masks, social distancing, and hand sanitizing were in place while handing out all items.

The TV raffle was held in house this year and a huge shout out of Congratulations goes to Nestor Acosta for being the grand prize winner!!!
